Tuckshop Report:

Corissa found that the bain marie has been working okay at the moment. Difficulty experienced with finding volunteers to assist with preparation. Last day for tuckshop is 6th December. Possibly no tuckshop on 29th November due to Corissa's other commitments.

Moved Bec Pou, seconded Hudson Moliere

General Business:

Speech Night – Jo mentioned that the Council will support an event by way of provision of ice for eskies. Just require Rob to approach and request this support. If we are having a bar at Speech Night, drinks to be put on ice well beforehand in order to ensure they are cold.

BBQ cooks required at 4.30pm to cook sausages prior to Speech Night. Rob to order sausages and bread. BBQ to be taken to the hall from school.

Napkins, sauces, utensils box, margarine, bread, sausages and oil.

Check with Rob regarding eskies required. Poppers and water for students, beer after Speech Night is finished.

Jo Thorogood to plan ordering for her nibblies for the night. Bec to place advertisement on facebook. Mini cob loaves and antipasto cups to be priced at $10. Pre-orders are necessary. There will be some extras available on the night but people are encouraged to place an online order. Jo would like final orders by Wednesday 27th November.

Jo requested that she be able to purchase onions among the ingredients.

Jo requires volunteers to assist her in the preparation of nibblies. She will require two helpers for preparing from 2pm – 3pm. For serving, Jo will require three helpers from 5pm – 5.45pm. Volunteers who have assisted will have reserved seating at the front of the hall.

Jo said that Chantal Iker has the oven that she is donating to the school. She will deliver it at some stage. She also has leftover food to drop the school from catering jobs throughout the year.

RREAP Reports – Leanne presented RREAP reports for P&C perusal.

3D Printer – 3D Printers have been purchased with the $2000 donation from P&C. Tim found plastic bundles for educational use and purchased software for the 3D printer elective for 2025. Hudson brought in some models he has created himself for demonstrate what is possible through this subject.

Australia Day Billy Carts – Izzy to send Matthew Thomas a message as a date claimer.
