REPORT TO THE P&C: for 17th June 2026

Student News:

1. Our athletics carnival occurred last fortnight and was a very successful day for our winning house 'Mitchell'. We have several students through District Athletics on Monday of next week!
2. Today our Year 8 students attended Rolleston Coal for a science excursion which aligns to their current geography unit. We are always grateful to Rolleston Coal for these opportunities for our rural students.
3. Plans and organization are well underway for Regional Shield netball and rugby league which will occur in week two, next term.
4. Our first pre-prep transition is Friday 18th July from 2.00pm-3.00pm in the Prep Room with Mrs Lucke and Mrs Ferguson. Follow up sessions will occur in Sept, October and November. More info to come via newsletter.
5. Year 7 transition dates are yet TBC, however these will start next term!
6. Next Tuesday of Week 10 our students will have the opportunity to attend some NAIDOC rotations coordinated by a visiting Indigenous group 'Warama'. Students will be engaged in arts, music, indigenous games etc. We will also have a full school ceremony at 9am to start the day's festivities. Thank you Mrs Watson for organizing and overseeing this event!
7. Secondary students have been reminded about our no 'phone policy' and the importance of ensuring you receive consent from peers when uploading photos, reels / footage etc on social media platforms.

Work accomplished by staff:

1. Teacher planning meetings /cohorts' meetings will continue to take place throughout semester two with a focus on our reading data and preparations for new science curriculum in 2027.
2. As you're aware, Teachers are busy writing report cards and completing assessment. These reports will be emailed home next Friday!
3. I have encouraged our teachers to contact families if they are concerned about their results / behaviour of any of their students, so parents do not receive any surprises!
4. Towards the end of next term, we will say a final farewell to Mr Peter Spencer will be leaving SSS for a fulltime ITD position at Blackwater SHS. We are very grateful for Peter's ongoing commitment to our school community. He will be conducting a handover to Mr M in ITD in the coming weeks to ensure we can still offer ITD for our students.
5. Mrs Lucke is currently on LSL for the rest of this term. Ms Kathleen Laws is replacing her.
6. Mrs Tracey Roberts is on leave all next week - No replacement.
7. Mrs Leanne Dendle is on leave next week - I would like to warmly welcome a new colleague Mrs Ros Cooper to SSS.
8. Mrs Ellie Walmsley is returning to SSS in Week 2 of next term.
